THE CIVIL WAR in our backyard

Commemorate the 150th anniversary of the start of the American Civil War through unique programs and learning opportunities at your library this year! From September 2011 through May 2012, all CCPL branches will feature events and activities centered around the greatest conflict in our nation's history. From reenactments to special programs on the role of women and local African Americans in the war, not to mention children's activities and book discussions with local authors, there's something for everyone—and everywhere!

One Maryland, One Book

Don't miss this year's selection, The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian by Sherman Alexie, a semi-autobiographical novel about the life of Arnold Spirit, a 14-year-old budding cartoonist living on an Indian Reservation in Washington State. With humor and grace, Alexie's award-winning book tackles poverty, bullying, and family struggles.

One Maryland One Book is designed to bring together diverse people in communities across the state through the shared experience of reading and discussing the same book. Cecil County Public Library will be hosting many discussions at different branches:

Teen Read Week Photo Contest!

In celebration of Teen Read Week, we want you to "Picture It" at your library! Submit an original photo to your local branch by Monday, October 10th, that is INSPIRED BY YOUR FAVORITE BOOK. Library patrons will get a chance to vote on which picture they like best. Votes combined with scores from our judges (your YA librarians) will determine who will win a $75 gift card from your choice of Barnes and Noble or Captain Blue Hen to build your personal library! Visit your local branch for a registration form and guidelines. Contest is for teens ages 11-18.

Elkton Renovation Update

You've probably noticed that things are looking a little different at the Elkton Central Library these days. Our renovations are well underway and our temporary checkout desk and workspaces are all up and running smoothly. When visiting the library over the next three months, you may occasionally encounter some construction noise; however, we anticipate no further disruptions to library service. Thank you for your continued patience as we work to make your library better!
